WAR OFFER CAUSES

Aid U. S. if Actual Hostilities Come. .

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president ciation; Mrs. Norman De R. Whitehouse, chairman of the New York State Woman Suffrage party, and Miss Mary Garrett Hay, chairman of the New York City Woman Suffrage party, this week informed the Government that the full strength of their respective organizations was prepared to perform any sort of war service needed from them should war come.

Well, war is here. The Woman's Peace party has hastened to accommodate the suffs. The Woman's Peace party no sooner heard of the pledge made by the three votes for women organizations than the white winged bird which has hovered over 70 Fifth avenue. where the W. P. P. and societies of kindred purpose have their home, flew away from there and war, grim visaged war, moved right in.

Without even waiting to break off

pened fire on Mrs. Catt, Mrs. White house and Miss Hay, and up to a late hour last night verbai and epistolary shots were being let off fast and furious Right here it must be explained that there is considerable interlocking between suffrage and peace organizations Mrs. Henry Villard, Miss Lillian Wald Mrs. Henry Villard, Miss Lillian Wald, Mrs. Frank H. naking one a member of the women suffrage party we pledge our allegiance to the cause of woman's enfranchisement," Mrs. Cothren said last night. "That is what those organizations are for. And o have Mrs. Whitehouse go up to Albany to have Mrs. Whitehouse go up to Albany and tell the Governor that the woman suffrage party is ready to enilst for war—hand us right over without consulting us—well, it is the most undemocratic proceeding I ever heard of. Handing us over to the war lord, when any number of us stand for peace!"

Mrs. Viliard, who for many years held office in the National Woman Suffrage Association, said she had not words in which to express her grief at the action of Mrs. Catt. The president of the N. W. S. A., by the way, left last night for Washington, whither she has invited the local leaders of the association to Whitehouse did, she sputtered, pushing back her curly hair. "It was a miserable political crawl, that's what it was—trying to get favor for our suffrage bill turn in and help in the war. I wouldn't take the vote on such terms, and I am a good suffragist: I was leader in the First Assembly District for a good white. "The Woman's Peace Party can just inform Mrs. Whitehouse and Mrs. Catt and Miss Hay that its members, ining the half million women of the State suffrage party for war service. "You have handed over to the Government services which are not yours to give, and you did this without making the slightest effort to find out what the membership felt about war," the protest continues, "You have betrayed the cause." Then the signers indignantly resign from the woman suffrage party "until such time as it becomes a suffrage organization

Mrs. Brown Explains.

Mrs. Catt is an honorary vice-chair man of the Woman's Peace party, but has not taken an active part in the work. Miss Lillian Wald, who as a vice-chair-man of the New York City Woman Suffrage party, was offered to Mayor Mitchel for war service by Miss Hay, is chairman of the American Union Against Militarism, and it was she who obtained from Mayor Mitchel the peace flag that waved over the ship that carried Miss Jane Addams and a group of men and women to Europe on their futile errand of trying to persuade the warring Powers to consider arbitration.

Miss Fola La Foliette, suffragist, is also a worker for peace, but she couldn't be reached last night. At the headquarters of the New York State Woman Suf frage party it was said the peace party was agitating itself over nothing.

"There is nothing in the resolution passed by our executive board that any patrotic woman could object to," said Mrs. Raymond Brown. "Nothing was said about giving up suffrage work. I cannot conceive that any woman would refuse to play the part of a good citizen and help her Government if need came—certainly not the suffragists who are certainly not the suffragists, who are asking for citizenship. As to the charge of the action being undemocratic and unconstitutional, I can only say that our elected board voted authority to Mrs. Whitehouse to make the offer of our strength to Gov. Whitman. That is the usual method of procedure, since the entire membership cannot be called to-gether whenever some question comes

WAR FOR THE SUFFS German Visitor Lets Beer Get Best of Him and Riot Call Follows.

Even in the piping times of peace for a native born German to let a few seidels of Muenchner brau get the better of his judgment is a high crime and treason But in war times there is no limit to the enormity and danger of the offence. Richard Stella, 28, third engineer of the Row Starts Over Promise to self interned Prinz Joachim of the Hamburg-American one, now lying with her engines smashed at the West 135th street docks, came near to carrying it to the point of suicide yesterday. Richard went to Hoboken early in the afternoon. He yearned for the company of men of his own race and sentiments. He yearned for the company of the National Woman Suffrage Asso- and he yearned for Hoboken's elixir of dered, sampling freely, and between whiles he sauntered over to the North German Lloyd docks and poured silent contempt on the neutrality equads on duty there. But to his deep chagrin and grief he discovered that the Hoboken German Americans have buried the hyphen and turned their turnvereins into preparedness training camps. Broken hearted at such decadence, Richard shook the dust of River street from his sea boots and wandered westward.

A few blocks on he came to Fifth street and Grand. This part of Hoboken is chiefly populated by subjects of the Entente nations, particularly Italians. Wherefore Richard, loyal Teuton that he was, bought a large sack of ripe tomatoes and began shouting, "Hoch, der Kalser! Hoch, hoch, hoch!" After every "hoch" he threw a tomato at some prominent part of the surrounding land-

Along about the time the buildings around were assuming a polka dotted effect in pulpy red splotches the populace to realize they were being b diplomatic relations, the peace women engineer's supply of love apples had run ut, a group of them charged on him. Five minutes later the entire Hoboken police force, in answer to a riot call, resued Richard. His nose was bleeding freely, but he was still emitting a few feeble "hochs" at intervals. He continued to do so even after he had been locked up at Hoboken headquarters on a charge of disorderly conduct.

BROKER ARRESTED ON ROOF.

Oliver Humphreys Accused by Wife From Whom He's Separated.

Oliver Humphreys, 33 years old, a broker of 547 West 147th street, was arrested on the roof of the apartment house at 250 West 104th street yesterday morning on the complaint of his wife, Georgia.

Mrs. Humphreys, who is separated from her husband, lives in a bungalow on the roof. Yesterday morning, according to her account, she heard some one trying to force his way into her bed-She telephoned for a policeman and when Patrolman Curtin of the West 160th street police station arrived he found Humphreys in the room with broken cane. His wife was cowering a corner.

The hearing on the disorderly conduct charge was postponed until to-morrow by Magistrate Murphy in the West Side Court in order to enable the broker to return a scaled verdict in the Supreme Court in a case in which he was fore-

VOTES BILL DRAWS 200 WOMEN Debate Issues.

In a letter addressed to Mr. Straus, which was read by Julius Henry Cohen, Mr. Williams says:

I appreciate the motive which prompts yourself and associate com-missioners in seeking to prevent in-terruption of service on street railroads by reason of dissatisfaction with wages and conditions, but I cannot agree with you that the ends aimed at can best be accomplished by law or that such legislation as is proposed will be either practicable or beneficial. On the other hand, I fear it would be pro-ductive of unrest and dissatisfaction, tending to disturb relations which are now harmonious and fairly satisfac

Mr. Shonts in a letter said that while he recognized the principle of collective bargaining he did not believe in the idea of the wage board. In place of the pro-posed plan he suggested that the Appel-late Division appoint three arbitrators and that the Public Service Commission represent the public. August Belmont, who was to have given his views to the commission, did not appear. Edward A. Maher, president of the Third Avenue Railway Company, declared that he be-lieved that the employees brotherhood and other internal organizations of the employees could eliminate strikes.

poorly dressed man about 40 years old jumped from the centre span of the Williamsburg Bridge yesterday into the river, 143 feet below. He was either killed by the fail or drowned. A number of pedestrians on the bridge saw the man stop midway between the two towers and climb over the railroad structure onto the vehicle roadway. Several persons called to him, but he took no notice, except to turn once and shout: "I know what I'm doing!"

Patrolman Pierce of the Clinton street station, attracted by the shouts of the crowd, ran up just in time to see the man slip off his overcoat, climb the railing and Jump into space. An hour later Capt. Lick of the Health Depart-ment tug Riverside recovered the body of a man floating beneath the Manhatan Bridge. The police believe the body o be that of the suicide. In the discarded overcost was found a note stating that the writer was a driver out of work. It was signed R.
